This history of the Extra Methodist Church was compiled from old registers, dating back to 1881; and some of the original spelling from registers was used in the manuscript. Other sources was from old ledgers; old letters; notes; spiral notebooks; and other materials that have been written throughout the years. The author is indebted to P. H. Holand, Iverson Holland, Mrs. Luna Barnes, Miss Elizabeth Knight, Mrs. Launa Harrison, and especially to Mrs. Virgil (Mary Katherine) Dew, who made this material available for copying, and for her input on the over all manuscript. Thanks to those people who kept records over the years. If there are mistakes or omissions it is solely the fault of the author.

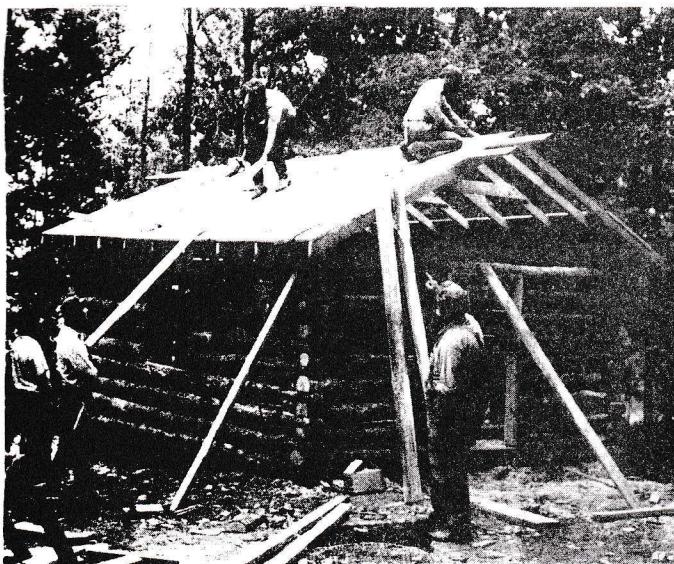

Respectfully,

Patsy K. White

This book is dedicated to the faithfulness and loving memory of P. H. (Pridgeon Hamilton) Holland, my Great Grandfather.

This is what we think the first structure could have looked like. It was used as a saloon as well as a school too.

This was the typical frame building of the times of the first wooden structure known as EXTRA METHODIST CHURCH, about the turn of the century.

Extra Methodist Church History

We do not know the exact date that EXTRA METHODIST CHURCH was organized. The earliest church register that we have was dated 1879, and contained 227 names on roll. It is known that at least one other register preceded this one, but it has been lost.

The first services were held in a crude building, probably a log structure, which was used as a saloon. This building was located on the east side of the highway across from where the present building is located. Later this building was moved across the road to the west side, by a team of oxen, owned by the father of John Calahan, who moved it. Mrs. Mattie Langford, born 1866, states she remembered the building while it was on the east side of the road, and that they also used it as a school. She remembers when they moved it in 1876.

Later a frame building was built; just outside walls with no ceiling or inside walls. The pews were made of split logs with pegs for legs. It was later renovated, and ceiled inside, and used as a place of worship until it was torn down. In 1912-13 a new building (the present one) was erected just north of the old one. Those that we remember who helped erect the present building were: I. V. Holland; Caney Holland; P. H. Holland; and Alfred Farmer, who were all members of the church for the most part. Steven O. Sawyer also helped with the building.

The land for the church grounds and the cemetery was purchased from Abner W. Files, on November 15, 1873. Trustees for the church at that time were: William H. Smith; Reuben Hill; and Henry I. Sawyer, Sr. We have no records of the church earlier than 1879, but there were death dates recorded in the cemetery as early as 1855. The FARMERS, HOLLANDS, and PAHALS came from Tennessee, the MARTINS from Mississippi, and the KINNIARDS from Alabama from 1853 to 1900. William Kinnaird, grandfather of Fred and Wm Jack Kinnaird was buried here in 1855. Henry I. Sawyer, grandfather of Erma Moore and Launa Harrison, and a trustee who signed the deed to this land, was also buried here in 1882. The deed to Extra Methodist Church is recorded in Book U, page 26 in the Ashley County Courthouse in Hamburg, Arkansas.

From Y. W. Etheridge's HISTORY OF ASHLEY COUNTY, we find that Extra Methodist Church was first called Bethel Church in 1850. More than one family went to church there, in a coach with a negro slave driver, all dressed in white, sitting atop the coach in full charge.

In the 1879 register, there is a unique arrangement of names. The male names are listed in a group and the female names are listed in another group. It has been passed down that the seating arrangements in the church were separate as well.

Going into the ministry from Extra Methodist Church were Rev. C. H. Farmer (Carlie Houston), 1900-1986, son of John Franklin and Sophronia Alice Holland Farmer, and grandson of P. H. and Margaret Berry Holland, along with A. B. (Braden) Holland 1882-1959, the son of P. H. and Margaret E. Berry Holland, long time members of this church. A. B. Holland is buried in the cemetery, along with his wives and his parents.

Down through the years, some very devoted Church School Superintendents have served as leaders of this church. P. H. Holland who came to this community in 1900 from Benton County, Tennessee, served as Church School Superintendent for 14 years between 1913 and 1921. He deserves high praise, for his faithfulness. Mr. Pridgeon Holland was not a fluent speaker like his preacher son, A. B. Holland, or his grandson, C. H. Farmer, but he was always faithful in his attendance. The weather didn't get too cold or the water in the creek too high, for him to be in his place each Sunday morning, even though it often meant a four mile walk for an old man. His example of 14 years without missing a Sunday has been an inspiration to the church.

Among our faithful Church School Superintendents, we can not forget Mr. Iverson Holland, who came when he was not able to. When he got old he would push a chair in front of himself in order to walk to the church from his house up the road. It seems when we get a good Superintendent, we tend to keep them for life. Others who have served faithfully have been Mr. Virgil Dew, who is always present, and his daughter after him, Mrs. Vanice Dew Jeffers who is now serving. Also Mr. Aura Farmer who served faithfully for many years is to be remembered.

Many services have been held throughout the years for our dear departed members. It is only fitting for those who have served so faithfully throughout the years, to this church, that the final tribute be paid them by having their funeral service in this church they loved and served. The final service is interment in the adjoining cemetery by the church.

We have to recognize two people who have kept the church register in the last few years, and they are Mrs. Luna Barnes and Mrs. Mary Katherine Dew (Mrs. Virgil). Another person who helped in many ways was Miss Elizabeth Knight. We do not know who was responsible for these records before they took them, but we do know these people have done an excellent job of recording the events, gifts, memorials, and renovations to the church in the later years.

Since Extra Methodist Church has been the center of the community, activities have centered around it. It was a country school house in the community before consolidation to Hamburg Schools, and buses ran the Berlin Road for the first time.

In 1984, there are only 35 names on the Church Register. The attendance is small, but the same spirit of the great day of yesterday—yesteryear, is still floating around and in the hearts and lives of those who are left and carrying on in God's services.

Here is a list of names of most of the people who have lived and are living in the community of Extra: ABBIE, AKERS, ALEXANDER, BLAKE, BOON, BUNN, BRYANT, BRIDGES, CAIN, CALAHAN, COOLEY, CRAWFORD, DEW, FARMER, FARRAR, FOLD, FRANKLIN, GILLISPIE, HOYETT, HARRISON, HOLLAND, HOGAN, JEFFERS, JONES, KINNAIRD, KELLEY, KITCHEN, KING, KNIGHT, LANGFORD, MARTIN, MOORER, PAHAL, PANQUIN, POLLOCK, RIELS, McCHRISTY, SAWYER, SMITH, WEST, WOMBLE, WESTBROOK, HUNTER, to name a few.

We have only fourteen weddings recorded that were solemnized at the church, but feel sure that there were others not recorded in years past.

Extra Methodist Church has been a large, live, prosperous country church. Many families lived near and attended its services. The older ones of these families have died, and the younger generations, went out to seek employment elsewhere, as farming is no longer the chief means of occupation.

The church being located in an area in which there was no industry, our young people, after finishing high school, left. Some went to college, some to military service, some became teachers, some preachers, and some just to other areas to seek employment. Some have married and live and work in other towns and are making good citizens, due to their early learning and influence this church and community have had on their lives.

Renovation and Additions Through the Years

The church building was wired for electricity and turned on in August of 1947. Everyone agreed that having electric lights and fans sure helped in the worship services, and for this we were very grateful.

A butane system was installed in October of 1948, and heaters put in the church. The old wood-burning heater was nice on cold winter days, but most agree the new system was more convenient and less work. Above the ground system in 1973.

It was decided that the church needed the old windows replaced, so in 1953, new ones were purchased and installed by the church. Venetian blinds were bought for the windows and installed January 30, 1956. These were bought by the Young People of the church.

Money was raised by church members and individuals and organizations gave in order to build Church School Rooms onto the church. Before this all Church School classes had met in the sanctuary of the church. These new rooms, built on the back of the church, were dedicated January 22, 1956. Rev. Kenneth L. Spore held the services and preached afterwards; A. C. White was pastor at the time. The Church Board of Extension was a great help in realizing this dream.

The brick steps to the front of the church were built by Luther Alexander in 1953, with materials bought by the church. The ladies of the church used their "quilting fund" to pay for these. New concrete steps were added to the back rooms in 1964.

R. E. Farrar, from Crossett, AR, painted the inside of the church in June 1955. The original ceiling is still in place in the church, with walls and ceiling of "beaded ceiling".

A new roof was put on the church in March of 1954. A new piano was bought for the sanctuary, October 22, 1956, to replace the old one which had been in service many years. The piano now in use (1974) was given to the church by Robert Baird of Hamburg, AR, in 1963.

An electric pump was installed in the church yard, March 1983, thus making it possible for indoor plumbing. Everyone who has ever attended services at a small country church knows about the use of privies out back which were used in fair or foul weather, in the hot or cold, day or night. If you have not, then you have missed one of life's great experiences. In 1983, Virgil Dew, Gaston Harrison, and Luther Alexander gave of their time and labor to build two restrooms inside the Church School Rooms addition. This was indeed a great day for the church.

The new church sign, built by Jack Atkins of Bastrop, LA, was installed April 3, 1987. This replaced the one erected in the 50's. The front porch and concrete walks on the south and north sides of the church were completed and paid for on July 5, 1987.

New blocks were placed under part of the church, June 1, 1989. This was a needed project, to replace old ones.

A new heater was bought in 1990, to replace the old one in the sanctuary of the church.

An Educational Building was added to Extra Church's main building and was dedicated January 11, 1956. Rev. Kenneth Spore held the services—A. C. White, pastor.

Days of Remembrance

~~We have had many Great Wonderful Days at Extra. The church was filled with old, young, children and babies... The greatest thing was the spirit of God was so prevalent, it was flowing through the church, out the doors and windows and into all surrounding areas.~~

For many years the annual church revival was held in August, after the crops were laid by. All the community came for a week revival, which included all peoples and all denominations. It was not only a spiritual renewal, but fellowship and praise to God for his help through the past year. Voices rang in songs of praise and from the Amen Corner shouts were heard as preachers gave their messages from God.

(1957) To mention only one great day, we had a Homecoming –people from everywhere came. District Superintendent Vaught delivered the message. It was one of the greatest sermons. It was indeed, a Pentecost. There was a well dressed, intelligent woman, from Hamburg Baptist Church at the services, ~~who on~~ coming out of the church, after the sermon said, Who is this man? I want to speak to him. I have never in my life heard such a sermon.

The church was full and overflowing with people. Not a noise of any kind. Truly, we believe, everyone ~~there~~ Heard and was filled with the Holy Spirit.

(1964) Homecoming at Extra, on October 25, 1964. Many people came and filled the house once again. A special talk was made by Vernon Harrison from Hamburg Methodist Church. The Harrison family have been long time members of this church, and served it in many ways through the years. Again an old time dinner on the ground was enjoyed by all present.

It was indeed A day that the Lord hath made, on Easter Sunday 1958, when Patsy (Mrs. Edward) White presented a hand painted picture of Christ to the church, in memory of her grandparents, Frank and Fronie Holland Farmer. Extra had been their home church when they came to Arkansas in 1900 from Benton County, Tennessee. The artist said I have never felt so humbled, when Virgil Dew gave the acceptance speech in behalf of the church. It was in itself a sermon of humility, as he brought attention to the hands of Christ outstretched to his children.

Another wonderful Homecoming was held on July 10, 1977. Guest Speaker for the day was Rev. Eldred Blakely of Bastrop, LA. Many family members and friends came to enjoy the singing, preaching, and dinner on the ground.

On May 19, 1991, another Homecoming was held at Extra, the first in 14 years. The church was filled again as in yester-years, with a singing held in the morning, with everyone requesting their favorite old hymn to be sung. The sermon was delivered by Rev. Walter (Bubba) Smith, which was very inspirational to those present. After the message, another wonderful dinner on the ground was enjoyed by all. In the afternoon, guest singers, The Jubelettes, from Bastrop, LA led the singing, along with other singers who were present. Everyone agreed it should not be another 14 years before there was another Homecoming.

Other days of remembrance for our church have been Easter Sunday specials with egg hunts, Valentines Day Specials, Mother's Day and Father's Day programs, and let us not forget special Children's Day programs.

Our Christmas programs have been very special through out the years, with the children taking part in these. It has been a very wonderful time in our churches yearly programs, and days to remember. These were encouraged by Mrs. Vickie Crawford and Miss Elizabeth Knight, who very generously gave of their time.

We do not want to forget the Promotion Day services for the Church School as well. This is a special day for our young people in their church and spiritual growth. The Sunday School has been a powerful force in keeping our church active. We realize that it is not for children alone, but for adults as well. Children who are brought to Sunday School have a much better chance of being Christians than do the children who are sent to Sunday School. We feel and believe that each person no matter how old, or how young feels that they have a place and a part in the service.

CHURCH SCHOOL TEACHERS

Down through the years, some very devoted Church School teachers have served as leaders of this church. All of whom we honor and hold dear in our hearts. Some who have served in the last twenty five years are:

Womens Society of Christian Service

So far as anyone knows there had never been a Womans Missionary Society in this church, until the Womens Society of Christian Service was organized in 1964, on the 12 of March. This was accomplished with the help of Mrs. Whitlow Sawyer, of Hamburg; Mrs. Barnett Miles of Monticello; and Mrs. Erle Lancaster of Eudora Districts. There were twelve charter members, and we have received four new members.

The work has been hard for beginners, but with willing workers, and a desire to learn, a whole new world of knowledge opened up for us, which is having its influence in other phases of church work, more often than we did. We keep a cleaner church building, without over working only one. We have learned to love and appreciate one another more – our prayer groups are a help too here. This is a quote from a Society member.

Extra Cemetery

We do not know exactly when Extra Cemetery was established, but the earliest recorded deaths are dated 1855. The cemetery has been in use since this early time. The land for the cemetery was purchased from Abner W. Files, the same time as the church, in 1873.

Trustees for the church at that time were: William H. Smith, Reuben Hill and Henry I. Sawyer, Sr.

This cemetery is the final resting place for many past members of Extra Church. Some burial plots contain the remains of entire families, from grandparent to great grandparents. People continue to be buried along side of their loved ones who have gone on before, because ties to this church and community are lasting.

A cyclone fence was placed around the cemetery, April 26, 1963. People from many places contributed to this fund, to have it done. One who spent many hours, writing letters and raising funds was Mrs. Belle (W. F.) Doles of Bonita, LA. The cemetery committee consist of: Gaston Harrison, Chairman; Virgil Dew, Treasurer; and other members were Hogan Holland and Vesper Jones.
